

CARTER'S OFFICE LOSES NEW MAN FOR IMMIGRATION

Secretary Target for the Mild Attack of the Resolution Makers.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

For a moment or two yesterday there was a considerable portion of the membership of the lower House of the Legislature which did not understand the strategy of the majority, which voted down, on third reading, the Six Months' Salary bill. But they were not left long in the dark. The attack was on Secretary George Carter, whose office had been given an official to look after immigration and advertising. This was undone and the same officer was placed under the Treasurer's department.

The work of putting through the Salary bill had been arduous and it took little time for the measure to be completed, once that stroke had been landed home. There were a number of charges, the salaries of many officers being raised. To finish up its work the House then took up the Eighteen Months' Expense bill, gave to it a few changes and then sent it to a stage where it may be passed at third reading tomorrow, as the recapitulation could not be completed in time for second passage last evening.

The Senate did little, and there will now be attention given to conferences right away, so as to finish up the labors of the session, of which only nine days remain.

IN THE SENATE

The House began business with the letter from Superintendent Cooper acknowledging the resolution passed with relation to his continuance in office and as well the notification from the Senate of its adoption of the same. Mr. Cooper says in his letter:

Honolulu, T. H., June 30, 1903.
Hon. Fred. W. Beckley, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Honolulu, T. H.
Sir: May I ask you to convey to the House my sincere appreciation of its action in passing House Resolution Number 1.

I consider it a call to duty, and I accept it with pleasure, and I assure you that I will carry out to the best of my ability the provisions of the several appropriation bills which the Legislature has passed for the benefit of the people of the Territory.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully yours,
HENRY E. COOPER,
Superintendent of Public Works.

Fernandez secured the passage of an amendment to change the wording of the item providing salary for the district magistrate of Wailanae, so it will read "district magistrate Ewa, he showing that there is no legal district of Wailanae."

MANY SALARIES ADVANCED.
Kellinoff moved to amend the salary of the Superintendent of the Wailuku Water Works to $600 instead of $450 to which the House agreed. Aylett had the item of tappers changed so as to provide for a tapper at $450 an assistant at $450 and two helpers at $450.

Lewis moved that the salary of the Sheriff of Hawaii be $1200. Fernandez withdrawing his objections but Kaniho keeping up the fight. He declared that it would be more fitting to pass a vote of want of confidence in the officer than to increase his salary. The amendment was carried by fifteen to ten.

Kumale moved to give the first assistant in the Survey Department $1,200, saying that this was the officer who did the real field work, and that Mr. Kanakani had been promised this amount. Harris immediately moved to increase the chief assistant to $1500, but Kumale moved to place the figure at $1350. After a debate of a quarter hour the chair was overruled when he attempted to place the larger amount before the House first and it passed at $1350.

Kellinoff had reconsidered the vote on the Kaula sheriff and the salary of Coney was put at $1050.

BOARD OF HEALTH CLERK.
Kumale moved to insert the item, Clerk to the Board of Health, stricken out on second reading, and fix the salary at $600. The House agreed to the amendment.

Harris had inserted in the item of Bailiff for Circuit Court, the words "to be appointed by the judge of the court in which they are employed."

Kupihua presented an amendment to make the pay of the Deputy Sheriff of Ewa $900, saying that the Wailanae district had been wiped out and the man had two districts to look after. Harris called attention to the fact that this was more than any other deputy sheriff was getting, and asked who was the deputy.

FERNANDEZ AND PREJUDICE.
Fernandez made the point that men were getting $150 a month in Honolulu as captains of police and he demanded fair play, saying there should not be discrimination against a Kanaka.

This brought forth an impassioned disclaimer from Harris as to the insinuation that he was bringing up the race question, saying he was here for all the people. Fernandez declared that the remark he made was due to the question as to personality. He said everyone knew the deputy was his own brother and he did not like the attacks. The Kumale amendment fixing the salary at $750 was then passed.

Greenwell offered an amendment cutting down the salary of the jailer at Oahu prison from $1600 to $900 because of the fact that he had been given an assistant, but he could not find a second.

LEPER SETTLEMENT BUTCHER.
Aylett said he had a brother, who is the butcher at the Leper Settlement for a salary of $60 a month. He moved that this be increased to $75, as his brother bought all supplies here and would not stay unless he got more salary. The House took its luncheon recess during the discussion and when the matter was taken up again it was with a new amendment that the general appropriation for the settlement be reduced by $360 and a new item for the "Butcher at Kalaupapa, $450," be inserted, which motion was carried.

Aylett then got into the Public Works department and moved the elevation of the salary of the first assistant clerk and bookkeeper to $1200, to which the House assented.

BILL FAILS TO PASS.

The bill was then put on its final passage but it could not secure sufficient votes to pass, the ayes being: Aylett, Gandall, Greenwell, Hala, Harris, Kellinoff, Knudsen, Lewis, and Speaker Beckley, 9. The noes were: Damiana, Fernandez, Kaniho, Keala-waa, Kupihua, Nakaleka, Olik Paele, Pall, Pulan, Purdy and Vida, 12.

Vida at once moved the recommittal of the bill to the Committee of the Whole House, which motion was adopted and Speaker Beckley at once called Chairman Greenwell to the chair.

AGAINST THE SECRETARY.
When the committee had reconvened Vida moved to strike out the item inserted under the office of the Secretary, Commissioner of Immigration. He said that the office of Secretary was a Federal one, in that the officer was appointed by the President, and he thought that the office should be under some territorial head.

Kellinoff advanced the idea that the Legislature had appropriated a sum for advertising the territory, had put that money under the Secretary and if that officer should refuse to place the fund at the disposal of the new official, the immigration commissioner would find that he had no funds to carry on his work.

Kumale objected to having the appropriation under the Secretary's office and he voted following his address the item was stricken out. Vida at once moved to insert a new item under the Treasury department "Commissioner of Immigration and Advertising Agent, $900." Kellinoff made several points of order against the item being reinserted after being once stricken out, but Greenwell stood to his guns and finally the item was inserted under the Treasury department according to the Vida motion.

GOES THROUGH NEXT TIME.
This was all the business before the committee and it at once rose and reported and the bill was at once declared to be on final passage. To this Harris raised a question as to whether or not the mere adoption of the report was sufficient to pass the bill. The vote was unanimous there being twenty-four ayes, and the speaker declared the bill passed third reading.

Speaker Beckley laid before the House a letter from Dr. Taylor saying that H. A. Jaeger was under his care and needed a radical change immediately, if he would expect to recover. On the strength of the Speaker Beckley had excused Mr. Jaeger, who took his departure for San Francisco in the Sonoma.

EIGHTEEN MONTHS EXPENSES.
The House then took up consideration of Senate Bill No. 2, the committee having the consideration of the travelling expenses of the band reappearing first. The committee specified the appropriations as follows: To East Hawaii, two trips at $1250 each, $2500; to West Hawaii, two trips at $750, $1500; to Maui, two trips at $900 each, $1800; to Kauai, two trips at $750, $1500; to Oahu country districts, $700; total, $8000. In addition the committee submitted a new bill appropriating $2000 for the band's expenses during the remaining six months of this year.

There was some discussion over the report. Kellinoff moving to amend by taking $500 from the amount appropriated for East Hawaii and making a new item of one trip to Molokai, $500. The amendment was made with only four dissenting votes.

Paele suggested the cutting out of the limit to two trips, saying that a section of the band might be sent on tour more often than twice a year. The

FORTY YEARS PASTOR OF KAWAIAHAO CHURCH

REV. H. H. PARKER—1863 1903

The Rev. H. H. Parker Receives an Ovation and Gifts on His Remarkable Anniversary in the "Old Stone Church."

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Kawaiahao church was well filled yesterday evening for the celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. Henry H. Parker over the flock worshipping in that historic edifice—"The Old Stone Church." A majority of the assembly consisted of native Hawaiians, well known people of the English-speaking churches in the Evangelical Union being scattered among them.

The decorations were beautifully tasteful. Over the front of the great organ was the legend in golden letters, "Forty years Kahu Aloha," upon pendant American and Hawaiian flags drawn aside clear of the keyboard. Hawaiian flags were draped over the ornamental partitions flanking the organ. Large stands of ferns and flowers were placed upon either end of the organ loft railing, that itself being draped from end to end with festoons of flags and wreaths. The platform was a flower garden, its occupants being almost hidden behind immense clusters of flowers and potted plants.

Representative Jonah Kumale presided and with him on the platform were the active participants in the order of exercises, including of course the veteran pastor of two score years' incumbency. The chairman introduced each item on the program with appropriate remarks. It need not be said, for any who are acquainted at all with Kawaiahao church, that the singing throughout was nothing short of magnificent. The hearers, with which the congregation joined voices to those of the choir was inspiring.

Rev. S. W. Kekuewa, after the singing of a hymn, offered the opening prayer. Frank K. Archer delivered an address on the pastor's life in Hawaii, which evoked subdued echoes of approbation together with gentle ripples of laughter. E. K. Lilikalani read a number of letters of congratulation to Mr. Parker from town and country, and, interspersed with hymns, there were addresses by the Rev. W. N. Lono and the Rev. E. S. Timoteo in Hawaiian, and the Rev. O. P. Emerson and W. R. Castle in English.

The committee's report was then adopted as amended by Kellinoff.

Chairman Harris, from the Finance Committee reported in favor of the appropriation of $5000 for the securing of land and making a park on Maui. The committee finds that there is available land and believes there should be action. The report was adopted.

On motion of Kellinoff the item of $6,000 for running expenses of the garbage crematory was cut out, it being held to be county item and not a Territorial one.

WORLD'S FAIR ITEM PASSES.
Fernandez continued to fight the World's Fair item, seemingly believing that it meant a new expenditure of $50,000 instead of simply the unexpended balance. There was a scattering debate after which the Fernandez motion to strike out was lost and the section passed as in the bill.

WORK IS COMPLETED.

The administrative sections of the bill were then read and passed with slight changes. The only real fight was upon that section which transfers control of the appropriations to the Territorial Board of Control. Kellinoff moved to strike out as he thought the courts had declared the Board illegal. This brought out a long debate ending in the retention of the section in the bill.

Twice attempts were made to ad-

The Rev. O. P. Emerson spoke as substitute for P. C. Jones, who was unavoidably detained from the meeting. He began with a reference to the proverb that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own kindred, which did not have application to Mr. Parker's position as the pastor of that congregation for forty years—though the speaker thought Mr. Parker was not born in Hawaii but in the Marquesas. A tender allusion was made to the venerable mother of the veteran minister sitting up there in the old family home that evening. The qualities of geniality, literary culture and loyalty to gospel truth, together with his early experience as a Sunday school teacher, as testified to by many who were familiar with his career—including Mr. Lono who spoke in Hawaiian that evening—were cited as the secrets of Mr. Parker's great power over the hearts of the people as evidenced by his success as a pastor.

MR. CASTLE'S TRIBUTE.

William R. Castle thought he had been asked to speak, not so much for himself, but on behalf of the old residents who had watched with appreciation the career of Mr. Parker. Mr. Castle alluded to the case of one who had read his own obituary prematurely published, hoping Mr. Parker would not be injuriously affected by the eulogies that it was their fond duty to bestow upon him on that notable occasion. It was interesting to note the fact that the families of the first, second and third pastors of Kawaiahao church were represented there that evening—Bingham, Armstrong, Clark. The speaker went on eloquently to sketch the pastoral record of Mr. Parker, with its burdens, trials and triumphs. He gave away a secret in telling a story to illustrate Mr. Parker's modesty, of his escaping by the earliest train from a mainland city when he learned that an address was going to be sought from him, as the pastor of the first church in Honolulu, at some important convocation. Mr. Castle concluded by tendering to join the House, but this was not done until all the figures and been passed upon by the House, when the adjournment was had to permit recapitulation.

IN THE HOUSE

After the opening preliminaries a communication was received from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House had declined to concur in the amendments made by the Senate to the loan appropriation bill, that it requested a conference committee of fourteen members and that the Speaker had appointed the following named seven to represent the House: A. Fernandez, H. M. Kaniho, S. Kellinoff, J. Kumale, S. K. Oili, J. K. Gandall and W. W. Harris.

President Crabbe appointed, as the Senate members of the conference: W. C. Achi, D. P. R. Isenberg, H. P. Baldwin, J. D. Paris, L. Nakapahu, C. Brown and J. T. Brown.

Another communication from the House announced that it did not concur in the Senate amendments to the supplementary bill for the payment of unpaid bills.

It was voted to ask for a conference of six members, and the President appointed, for the Senate: C. H. Dickey, S. E. Kalua and L. L. McCandless.

At 10:21 the Senate adjourned for the day.

The Mad Mullah's army was taken completely by surprise and for a time was practically in an ambuscade. The Abyssinians poured in a murderous fire on the Mullah's followers. Ten thousand of the Mullah's forces were killed. A large number were also wounded. The fatalities were much greater by reason of the attacking forces having gotten within effective striking distance of the enemy. It is not known whether the Mad Mullah was slain or not. The British officials are inclined to the belief that the Prophet succeeded in escaping with the remnants of his army.

Mr. Parker, on behalf of his numberless friends in the community at large, the strongest and the warmest expression possible of the beautiful sentiment enshrined in the Hawaiian word Aloha.

"America" was here sung with fine effect in both languages simultaneously.

MR. PARKER'S REPLY.

With deep feeling he thanked them and invoked God's blessing upon them. After his remarks in English he repeated the sentiments in Hawaiian.

At the conclusion of his address he was enwreathed with leis by the ladies of the committee.
